Description

Large, original, colour woodblock print by the Australian artist John Hall Thorpe (1874-1947), circa 1926. 'The Chinese Vase' One of John Hall Thorpe's less common and largest colour woodcuts. Artist signed and titled in pencil on image lower right and left. Hall Thorpe executed the Chinese vase in a variety of different colour ways, from vivid reds and blues to delicate almost monochromatic versions. This version with anemone stems printed in green ink, fine line shading on some red petals, on a light cream colour paper ground. In original period glazed oak frame with thin wood slip. Visible image size 13" x 19" Frame size 19" x 25" Full size print in very good condition, no fading or foxing. The frame still pinned and sealed from new, small bruises / nibbles to the frame, nothing significant.
