Description

Dating from the turn of the century, a large old pine Dutch pine Linen Press, with an attractively panelled two door cupboard opening to two full width shelves. The base consists of three full width drawers, each with the original brass drop handles. (The top section is 44" high, and separates from the base for delivery) Please contact us for dimensions when checking your access. It is sat on big bun feet to the front and block feet to the back. The block feet allow the piece of furniture to sit flush against a wall. The shelves could be removed and a new brass hanging rail fitting at the top if required, although with an internal depth of 16", it would only be suitable for small hangers. Originally painted, now stripped, so currently in bare wood. Requires a small amount of restoration, but can be purchased as it is for £890, or restored and waxed for £997. Height: 75" (top section height: 44"), width: 60", depth: 19.5", internal depth: 16"

Internal Ref: F7701F
