Description

This is a nice and clean writing table from around 1900. The wood is walnut and the tooled leather with the small 'fleur de lys' in each corner is black, (does not conflict with a colour scheme in a room) the handles appear original. It has a well turned leg and sits on original casters. This is a good useful item and it is a keen price too for one in this condition at only £435. Give us a call to discuss 01565 874075
