Description

A superb antique 18ct gold opal and diamond cluster ring. This ring is typical of the late Victorian / early Edwardian period and was created in 1907. The three opals are solid (not doublets or triplets), bright and display a great play of colour with strong greens and oranges with hints of purple. The opals are surrounded by eight claw set, old cut diamonds which show them off beautifully. A part of our antique opal ring collection.
