Description

Antique Victorian button back armchair, circa 1880, with sprung seat and raised on ring turned supports with original castors. The chair is in good condition overall. It is extremely comfortable and the seat is good with no bumps. The fabric, although pretty clean, is somewhat tired and is more suitable for re-covering. I can arrange this with my upholsterer should it be required and can supply fabric - please contact me for further details. 91cm high, 66cm wide at the front edge, the seat 49cm deep and 37cm high.
