Description

A good quality Georgian style wing chair, of excellent line and proportion, with fine colour and patina, on fluted mahogany legs united by stretchers. This is one of the most comfortable and good-looking chair designs of all time, combining comfort with elegance. The leather is in good condition with the patina of use. There is a small tear where the left arm joins the back...see images 4 and 5... hardly noticeable. (I have been the owner of this chair for the last 40 years, using it daily, and it has not worsened in that time.) DIMENSIONS: Height 44 inches, width 32.5 inches, depth overall 32 inches. PROVENANCE: *Warwickshire country house collection. * Since 1979 in the collection of Roy Precious.
