Description

A charming pencil study of a child's head framed and glazed. The attractive gilt-edged wood frame fits the piece perfectly. We would date this fine drawing to the early 1900s. Signed Edwards lower left. We did consider Lionel Edwards the famous equestrian and sporting artist but we are not sure, although the quality is certainly there. Frame aperture is 10.5 x 8.5 inches. Would suit a modern or period interior. Thanks for stopping by, please browse our other interesting and eclectic items!
