Impressive Large Contemporary European School Oil on Canvas, depicting St Marks Square, Venice. - This is a magnificent oil on canvas, mounted on stretcher in this Grand Imperial style frame with slip, ready to hang. Will grace any wall and fine room, in excellent condition, few very minor marks to frame edge as expected from such a large heavy frame. - SAINT MARK'S BASILICA Is a cathedral located on St. Mark's Square in the city of Venice, Italy. It is one of the attractive cathedrals in the city and it is famous for its uniqueness in terms of the design and the magnificent interior as well as being an example of the Byzantine architecture. Many years ago, however, it did not serve as a cathedral. In fact, it was a chapel for the Venetian City and its rulers. Since the 11th century onwards, the cathedral was known by the nickname "Church of Gold," or "Chiesad'Oro" in Italian. - The entire cathedral of St. Mark has had both European and Italian artists working on it. That is one of the reasons why it displays the beauty and designs from both cultures. St. Mark's Basilica is known for its artistic, iconographic as well as religious content and some have described it as b...
