Description

A Vintage Continental Knockdown Pine Wardrobe. If you are looking for a clean-lined large wardrobe but are stuck with a tight space or troublesome staircase then look no further! These ingenious knockdown wardrobes break down for easy movement and install. Dating to the first quarter of the 1900s this wardrobe has a nice stepped cornice with central raised arch. Three doors with the two glazed doors being flanked by reeded columns. Standing on a plinth base. The interior has a double hanging space to the left and a three shelved section on the right. The doors have pretty brass escutcheons with lock and keys.
