Description

A very pretty and good quality late 18th century English George III period inlaid oval TEA CADDY in lovely original condition. Veneered in harewood this delightful caddy is inlaid to the lid with a spray of flowers and to the front with flowers and ribbons. (Note how the inlaid ribbon continues up the front and across to the front of the lid). It opens to reveal the original interior with some of the original lead lining intact. A excellent example of a 'classic' Georgian oval tea caddy. 6ins wide.

Internal Ref: 5039/k
