Description

The thick planked top of this antique French trestle dining table is fabulous. The craftsman has skillfully used the design to maximize the beautiful colour and grain of the wood. The cross sawbuck legs are joined by a substantial stretcher. This antique table will seat 10 comfortably. The condition of this oak dining table is good, it is solid and stable. There is evidence of historic woodworm, long dead, however it has been treated again for peace of mind. A lovely example of a craftsman made French trestle table. c. 1900 Length: 71" 180 cm Width: 41" 104 cm Height: 29.5" 75 cm
