Description

A lovely oak library table dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. The top is inset with a good quality green leather-type material and stands on turned tapering legs. There are 3 large drawers at the front, each with brass pull handles. There is good leg clearance of 23 1/4" / 59cm to sit at. It is in very good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy with a lovely rich patina. The drawers open well and are generally clean and tidy inside although there are some old ink stains. There are some minor signs of age and use, light surface marks and knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental. It has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions at all please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton, Devon.
