Description

This handsome antique table top gong which has 2 cattle horns mounted on an English oak base dates from the late 19th century. This highly decorative gong has silver plated mounts, a blank central cartouche and the brass gong is suspended between the two horns. This is nicely polished and makes a loud dong when struck with the wooden striker. This impressive gong would look super cool in a hotel, restaurant or bar and would also make a great dinner party feature in the home. Condition: Very good used antique condition with signs of wear in keeping with age. Some warm copper colour showing through on silver plate. Some small marks and tarnish. Please note that any other items in the pictures are for display only.
