Description

A lovely antique armchair with exposed rosewood frame on carved cabriole front legs with the original castors. It is good quality with a curved scrolling back, beautifully carved arms and a button back. The upholstery is not new but is excellent quality and is generally clean and tidy. There are a few minor marks on the seat and some slight discolouration on the end of the arms but nothing major and it displays well. The chair is in good condition for its age and is very comfortable. There are some general marks and small knocks around the legs and some slight sun fading but nothing detrimental. The frame is generally solid and in good condition. Approximate Measurements: Height : 36 1/2" (93cm) Width across arms : 25" (64cm) Depth : 31" (79cm) Seat Height : 15 1/2" (39cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
