Description

A lovely antique oak barrel dating from the 19th century. It is very well made with brass strapping and copper rivets. A good size for an umbrella / stick stand. It is in good condition and displays well. There are signs of age and use but no major damages and the wood has a wonderful patina. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available, please get in touch for an accurate quote.
