Description

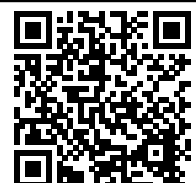

This lovely example of a 19th century pine farmhouse kitchen table has a well patinated top and stands on four turned legs. There is a drawer at one end. This table is a lovely golden colour, typical of aged pine. The condition is good, the table stands well, there is a historic repair to one leg but this is strong and the table solid. There are some marks as can be expected from a used and loved table from the Victorian era, this merely adds to the appeal. The table is a good size for the average family seating 6 comfortably. c. 1880 Code. RH89 Length 60" 153 cm Width: 35" 90 cm Height: 30" 76 cm
