Description

A large double pine wardrobe c.1890, with decorative panelled doors, and edges to the main body of the wardrobe. It has double panelled sides, and arch insets above the doors. There are block feet to the front and back, but the front feet are at an angle - in keeping with the style. It has an internal depth of 20" (51cm), so plenty big enough for large hangers. The wardrobe's current condition is in the bare wood, having recently been stripped. You can buy it like this for £1050. The price including waxing is £1175. Decorative wardrobe's such as this one, look very nice painted. If this is something you are thinking about, please contact us for a quote for our professional painting service. All prices include the fitting of a new brass hanging rail. Totally dismantles for delivery and access. Height: 82", width: 71", depth: 26", internal depth: 20"
