Description

A superb antique hinged locket decorated with a high relief design of flowers and curlicues to the front. Nicely weighty, but not uncomfortably so, it hangs on a substantial bail which moves freely from right to left. The silver is unmarked but has been tested. The inside, a little blackened, contains an acetate in one side and backing cloths. The locket opens and closes easily, the hinge is in good condition and it snaps shut securely with a click. There is a crease in the back surface (see photos). Size: 4.2 x 3.4 x 1cm. Weight: 25g.
