Description

Thomas Russell Premier full hunter pocket watch. The watch has a Swiss stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed and it is all protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is the gold plated Star model from the Dennison Watch Case Company, a prolific case manufacturer who supplied various watch makers. There are two or three areas of unevenness but not too detrimental at all. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside there is a glass lens which is in good condition. The signed dial is in lovely condition and has blued steel hands, a large subsidiary seconds dial and an outer minute track. The watch will come in a new presentation box. The company name of Thomas Russell & Son was established in 1859 when Thomas Russell (who was listed as a watchmaker as early as 1848) handed over the control of the business to Thomas Robert Russell and Alfred Holgate Russell. The company was very well respected and successful and they earned a Royal Warrant, 'Makers to Queen Victoria'... they continued to benefit from this Warrant even after it ceased ...
