Description

A fine pair of antique leather club chairs raised on turned front bun feet, of very good proportions and extremely comfortable having sprung seat and backs. English Circa 1900's This pair of club chairs date from the early 20th century, having a doomed shaped back with set back scrolled armrests a feather swab cushion. Decorated with brass studwork detail trim standing on turned front bun feet and brass castors. These antique leather chairs have been reupholstered with a quality russet leather hide which is then hand dyed using a traditional method. We specialise in leather upholstery and have sold many club chairs to interior designers, trade and private clients from all over the world. These club chairs will make a fine addition to any traditional or contemporary home.
