

SA72808

ANTIQUE LONGCASE CLOCK

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA72808*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A Cheshire Georgian longcase clock with a swan neck hood pediment. Fluted brass capped hood columns. An oak case with mahogany crossbanding. Fluted trunk side columns and a re-entrant base panel. A rarer dial with central date hand. Very attractive floral decorations with raised giltwork and seconds dial. An 8-day duration mechanism striking the hours on a bell with internal strikewheel. Hour bell striking. Thomas Richardson of Weaverham is recorded in Baillies' 'Clockmakers and Watchmakers of The World' book as working in 1795. Height 6ft 10 " / 209 cms

Seller Details

Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd

Bristol United Kingdom

Tel: 0117 956 5281

International Tel: +44 117 956 5281

