Description

A wonderful quality set by the famous silversmith William Hutton & Sons and dating to the late Victorian era, around 1880. The top-notch silverplated frame is decorative but not too fussy, making it very appealing. There is an upper plate with six cut-outs for each bottle to fit through, a true sign of quality. There are six bottles in total, three beautifully cut crystal bottles with original cut stoppers, two pepper pots with silver plated tops and a mustard jar complete with the original spoon with matching hallmark to the stand. All in wonderful undamaged condition, measuring 8" X 5" X 9" tall to top of handle. Item ID: 32128 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail; Insurance Optional.
