Description

A good example of a Victorian Sterling Silver milk or cream jug. It has a bulbous shape with elegant scrolling handle, wavy rim and three splayed feet. The jug is stylish and good quality, weighing approximately 97g. It is clearly hallmarked for Mappin & Webb, London, 1895. It is in good condition for its age. There are some faint surface marks and small dinks around the body but nothing detrimental and it still displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £5, rest of the world £15
