Description

A superb and large Victorian mahogany dressing table of French Rococo design. With bold cabriole legs, richly carved to the shoulders with Acanthus. The front is stepped serpentine in shape with a pair of jewellery drawers either side of the large dressing mirror. All the drawers have working locks with key and still retain their original cast brass handles. The locks are stamped 'Warings' of the reputable Waring and Gillows fame, synonymous with the highest quality of cabinet making. Recently re-polished and with only minor blemishes to the original bevelled mirror. The condition is excellent and ready to use and enjoy. In stock separately is a matching wardrobe from the same maker.
