Description

Always popular are these antique bread forks, so very elegant on the table to serve all sorts of things. They are particularly sought-after in sterling silver rather than silver plate and even more desirable with these beautifully iridescent Mother of Pearl Handles. The tip to the handle and the ferrule is also hallmarked sterling silver. The marks are for Sheffield 1904, making this an Edwardian example. Excellent condition, measuring 7 1/2" long.
