Description

An antique pine wardrobe with two doors, each with attractive design. Dating from around the art deco period c.1910, with vertical columns either side, very typical of this era. There are two bottom drawers, each with brass drop handles. Sat on block feet to the back, and bun to the front. Recently stripped of its original paint to the bare wood, and can be bought in its current condition for £1000. Waxed price is £1125. In our opinion this would look very nice painted - please contact us for a quote for this service. All prices include the fitting of a new brass rail. With an internal height of 65.5", it is plenty high enough to accommodate a shelf above the rail (Shelf: £25 extra), please let us know your requirements. This wardrobe totally dismantles for delivery and access. Height: 81", width: 60", depth: 26", internal depth: 19.5"
