Description

Superb pair of 19th century Scottish polished granite curling stones of outstanding condition. I doubt these have ever actually been used but have been thoroughly cared for over the years and polished regularly to achieve the gorgeous glow they now have. Both have their original handles which are white metal and ebony. They don't come much better than this. SIZE; 10" diameter by approx. 8" high overall CIRCA; 1880 - 1900
