Description

A fine and very original carriage clock with its original outer case covered in 'Moroccan leather' which is in good condition. The proportions of the clock are good being larger than average. All original bevelled glass and double ended key. The original gilding has been restored and cleaned and the movement fully overhauled. Circa 1880-90. The clock has a number stamp in the lower left corner 1905. We have seen many carriage clocks over the years and this looks to be from one of the large producers, either Drocourt, Richard, or possibly Brunelot. This clock strikes the hour on a gong and also has the alarm feature with push repeat. The dial shows Arabic minutes to the outer edge of the Roman numerals. The classic carriage clock.

Internal Ref: Cased Gorge Carriage
