Description

Artist: Fred Lawson.(1888-1968). Title: "Leading Timber". Medium: Watercolour drawing. Pen and ink wash. Size: 7" x 8 3/4" (picture size in inches). Overall framed size: 14 1/4" x 15 3/4". From A Book of Drawings by Fred Lawson. For Victor Thomas of Nab Wood. Started at Castle Bolton. June 1st 1935. Finished October 5th. They are all beautifully observed depictions of life in the Yorkshire Dales and local area in 1935, using only ink and six ink wash colours available at the time. Once it was down on paper it couldn't be altered! Due to them having been in the bound book they are as fresh and vibrant as when they were painted. Framed in a gilt frame with a washline mount and ready to hang. Free UK delivery. One from our very large collection of watercolours by Fred Lawson.
