Description

George III period 30-hour long-case clock. The cord-wound striking movement with a 10 ½" square brass dial, rococo spandrels and a calendar aperture, inscribed Wm Martin, Bristol*. In a simple golden oak case with a flat-topped hood with brass-mounted free-standing columns, and on a shortened base with a shaped apron. *William Martin is known to have been working in Bristol in the first half of the 18th century. In good and working condition. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold an Open Weekend usually every November. Open 9.00am – 5.00pm, Tuesday to Friday, 10.00am – 4.00pm on Saturday. A prior phone call or email before visiting is always a good idea and we are happy to be contacted outside of business hours.
