Description

James Scrimgeour Mann RI, PRCA 1883-1946. Marine painter and poster artist born Dundee. Studied Liverpool School of Art, associate member of RCA 1932, full member 1933, Vice President 1940 and President in 1942, a post that he held until his death in 1946. Exhibited at the R.A., but mainly at the Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool (49), RI (55), RCA (27) and elsewhere. 'Flotilla, including White Star Line, on the River Mersey, Liverpool' signed oil on relined canvas, image size 60x100 cms, framed size 77x119 cms. Housed in a bespoke washed and gilt wood frame. An outstanding example of the artist's work depicting the Mersey at its zenith in the 1930s; truly part of Liverpool's rich heritage!
