Description

A very good Victorian period revolving desk chair in oak by Jas Shoolbred and Co of London. Well made in solid English oak and upholstered in lovely deep button-backed brown leather. Both the frame and the upholstery have a great depth of colour and patina. This chair is very sturdy and exceptionally comfortable. It rotates freely making full movement easy. It is offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home or office. Dimensions: Width 62cms Depth 51cms Overall height 86cms Seat height 46cms James Shoolbred & Co The name of James Shoolbred & Co is highly respected among admirers of Aesthetic Movement furniture. Their antique desks, Victorian dining chairs and antique marquetry furniture were produced for wealthy households up to 1931. A particularly fine example of James Shoolbred antique marquetry furniture – an ornate piano by designer Henry Batley – is on display at the V & A museum, London. Established in the 1820s, James Shoolbred's Tottenham Court Road company began life as a drapers. It began supplying textiles to the furniture trade, and expanded into the stores either side, branching into interior design. By the 1870s, the compan...
