Description

A delightful set of four cut glass plates, dating from the Victorian period. The plates have frosted bodies with a drop centre featuring a starburst cut star. These attractive examples are probably ice plates and would have been used with crushed ice and a bowl set on them, to keep food chilled. Nowadays, they would make useful dessert or side plates and a surviving set of four is a good find. Dimensions below. Postage and Packing contribution £15.00 UK £25.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no chips or cracks. Origin :- English. Date :- c1870. Diameter :- 16 cms. Diameter of centre area :- 10.5 cms.
