Description

A handsome slim Edwardian oak hall bureau dating from circa 1910. With a raised gallery back above a fall front which opens to reveal a fitted interior. The base has two open bookshelves and is raised on arched feet. In a wonderfully figured honey coloured oak with good patina. Of small proportions; so would work wonderfully in a hall or a where space is limited. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good original condition with good colour and patina. General wear and marks commensurate with age. It locks but the key stays in place. Two small corner sections missing to applied fringe on front of fall. Dimensions: Height: 118cm Height to Fall: 76cm Max Width: 57cm Max Depth: 30cm / 17cm Deep at Top
