Description

Set of 4 early C19th George IV period carved mahogany dining or side chairs attributed to Gillows of Lancaster. Superb quality set of four carved mahogany chairs with distinctive Gillows design carved backs, raised on elegant reeded forelegs onto a peg foot. The moulded-edge seat frame surmounted by a loose, padded cushion pad of unusual format attached through the frame to the underside by straps. The backs with shaped and carved central lumbar bars with central tablets, across the ergonomically-shaped and carved frames. The corners of the top rails carved with stylised anthemion or cornucopia motifs with a corresponding central tablet or reserve. The timber of a rare high grade and thickness, the quality of which is generally associated with the esteemed cabinet-making form of Gillows of Lancaster and London. In excellent original condition with no breaks, damage or repairs. Retain original finish, colour and patina. W (back) 17" H " 34" W (seat) 18" H " 18" D " 17" England c. 1825
