Description

A Welsh pine one-piece corner cupboard in the original untouched painted finish simulating the graining of an exotic timber. The upper section has a bold cornice over a pair of doors with 13-pane astragal glazing, enclosing shaped shelves, over a base with a pair of doors painted to simulate matched veneers, raised on a plinth. Nice original surface. (The left hand cornice return has an old repair) South Wales, circa 1790. Height: 81 inches; 206 cms. Width across front in middle: 34.25 inches; 87.5 cms. Width allowing for returns and cornice: 43.25 inches; 110 cms. Depth of returns: 4.75 inches; 11.5 cms. Depth front to back in centre (excl cornice and plinth): 30.75 inches; 78 cms. Depth from rear corner to front of cornice: 24 inches; 61 cms. Corner cupboards are notoriously difficult to measure - if you need to fit a precise space, let us check against your measurements.
