Description

A real treasure from the 1930s is this Art Deco tallboy . On first viewing this piece one can't not be impressed by the obvious quality and size , made from solid mahogany for the carcass with bleached blonde walnut bookpaged veneers to the exterior, it just oozes style and luxury. A very solid, heavy piece that will last any new owners lifetime and beyond. The doors both open smoothly with a working lock and key. Brass hinges and internal lock systems all working well and not corroded. Still retains its original catalin bakelite and brass handles. Lots of useful and generous sized storage within , with a hanging area one side and five open cubed shelves the other with two full length drawers to the base. We've given this piece a professionally and full restoration . It's free from any damage and is in good showroom condition with a satin finish. UK DELIVERY £85
