Description

A good quality nest of 3 antique Victorian mahogany tables in the manner of Gillows. Each table having a raised carved egg and dart beading with solid oval mahogany top standing on turned gun barrel legs with shaped feet and curved cross stretchers. The bottom table is tamped with the number 2717. Dating from circa 1890.

Construction/Wood Mahogany Condition Report Good colour, patina and figuring. Some wear and marks commensurate to age to the table tops. Top and bottom table reasonably solid and sturdy but some slight side to side wobble in the middle table due to the structure of these tall elegant tables – the joints are solid.
