Description

1930s "Everite" pocket watch from H Samuel. The watch has a Swiss stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed "Everite" H Samuel, Manchester... Everite was H Samuel's brand name for watches sold in their own shops. In 1862 when Harriet Samuel took over her father-in-law's clock-making business in Liverpool, she renamed the business H Samuel and moved the business to Manchester's Market Street where she ran the company as a mail order business. Later on, Harriet's son concentrated on the retail side of the business, and the first H Samuel retail store opened in Preston in 1890, closely followed by branches in Rochdale and throughout Lancashire. Since then the company has become nationwide with branches in many British High Streets today. This particular watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is gold plated and was made in England, originally guaranteed to wear for 10 years. The case is in lovely condition with just light surface marks, nothing serious at all. The acrylic lens is in good condition. The signed dial is in lovely condition too with original blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial a...
