Description

Circa 19001-1920 a pair of good quality glass lustres with 12 glass drops on each, and a shaped heavy glass central column with a decorative base. They measure 25cm in height with 15cm diameter bases, and will take approx 2cm - 2.5cm candles. They are very heavy, quality glass and in good condition except for a tiny bit of wear under the rim of one of them. The original drops alternate between decorative crystal drops with a point at the end and a shaped drop - see photo 2 for more details. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price and for outside areas or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote.
