Description

Early C19th late George III period mahogany secretaire bookcase . Well-proportioned mahogany bookcase with decoratively glazed 2-door cabinet over a 2-door panelled cupboard base with a fitted fall-front secretaire writing drawer . The drawer and cupboard fronts all inlaid with a fine ebony line with geometric 'cosss-over' square corners. The cupboard base fitted with a single sliding tray shelf , the whole raised on splay bracket feet with a shaped apron . The well-fitted secretaire writing drawer with multiple interior drawers and pigeonhole compartments, the drawers with maple veneered decorative fronts and turned ivory knob handles . The fold-down secretaire drawer-front interior writing surface lined with the original green felt baize . The exterior of the drawer fitted with original brass ring handles and circular back-plates. The glazed bookcase top fitted with 3 adjustable 'ladder-rack' interior mahogany bookshelves with moulded fronts , enclosed by astragal glazing with fine moulded bars of 'lancet' arched design and original glass . The sides of the cabinet with reeded vertical moulded uprights . The moulded cornice above of restrained and elegant design
