Description

A very attractive gilt framed mirror, circa 1870 needing some restoration but useable as it is. I have just removed it from its home of the last 60 years & believe it to have been purchased by its last owning family from an auction of the dispersal of the contents of a country mansion house. The photographs are exactly as it is in an uncleaned original state perfect for careful restoration or use depending on your needs. The plate glass mirror measures approximately 133cm x 108cm inside the frame. Inspection welcome.
