Description

Regency style mahogany twin pillar dining table This solid mahogany twin pillar dining table was made at the start of the 20th century using timber from a larger Georgian dining table that had become redundant or too large for a later owner. The table with 2 D-ends and a further leaf to extend the table. A pair of mahogany turned gun barrel columns with the triple legs support the table. Each leg is fitted with the wonderful cast brass toes with the castors under. The table can be used with no leaves. It makes for a very versatile dining table to suit the sitting you require as you entertain your family and friends. As this table does not have a leg to each corner you can entertain more people around it. Imagine how wonderful this dining table will look in your dining area. 203cms long 80ins 106cms deep 41 3/4ins 74cms high 29ins 162cms closed without leaf 64ins The leaf 41cms 16 1/2ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
