Description

Edwardian mahogany circular extending dining table This Edwardian mahogany circular extending dining table was made circa 1900 in one of the best cabinetmaker's workshops of the period. It would certainly be one of Waring and Gillows, Maples, or Hampton & sons of Pall Mall. The table extends from the closed circular shape to take 1 or 2 extra leaves to suit your seating requirements. It winds out using the patent winding mechanism with a crank handle illustrated in the images. Standing with a finely turned fluted leg to each corner all with their original porcelain rolling castors. The images do not do this fabulous table justice, imagine how much joy and fun this will give you as it graces your dining room as you entertain your family and friends. 244cms long fully extended 8ft 138cms deep 54ins 77cms high 30ins 138cms when closed without leaves 54ins Leaf 1 55cms 21 1/2ins Leaf 2 49.5cms 19 1/2ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference. This Edwardian mahogany circular extending dining table is a very green product and has not damaged our environment Delivery We can arrange free delivery to UK...
