Description

A superb example of an Art Deco style glass ceiling light with its original chrome gallery dating from the early 20th century. The lamp is a pretty mottled pink glass with gilt line detail. The light is made to hang from the ceiling on a chrome rod which could be shortened if necessary. It has been rewired to modern standards with a bayonet bulb holder. The light is ready to install but we always recommend that the light is checked and wired by a professional electrician. The light is in good condition with no damages apart from a few small nibbles around the rim. The chrome has tarnished slightly in places but it displays well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK Delivery £15
