Description

A large Antique Pine Farmhouse Kitchen Table. Harder to find this size and quite unusual to have one with a run of four drawers to its side. Great colour and patina. The plank top with lots of wear and age. Below in the frieze sit the row of four drawers with dark turned knobs. Single dummy drawer to the reverse side. The whole standing on gently tapered legs. Leg clearance to underside is 57-58cm. A great table that would grace any home. Would suit a modern or period interior.
