Description

The very best madder-red can be found on the early rugs, carpets and trappings of the Teke and Salor Turkmen tribes. Here we see in this fabulous yurt main carpet made by Teke tribes during the mid 19th century, this fantastic use of glowing madder-red on which are depicted the tribal crests or 'guls' of the Teke tribe. You can't get much better than this! Highly collectible and amongst the very best of type. 3.23 x 1.90m (10' 7" x 6' 3").
