Description

For your consideration is the very good quality and extremely attractive Art Deco mantle clock made in Germany and dating to the 1930's. The casing is the real hero of this timepiece, great size with heavily figured walnut veneered dial with Ebony Macassar veneer making up the two side supports. All finished off with raised solid brass highly polished raised numerals and dial hands. The movement strikes on the hour and the half hour and is operated by its original key and pendulum. We've had this clock professionally serviced this and so comes to you in good working condition keeping good time. We've also had the exterior of the clock polished so also in great condition.
