Description

A classic antique solid rose gold necklace which secures with two hinged dog clips and suspends a decorative T bar. The piece would have started out life as a Victorian watch or guard chain. The curb links are individually stamped 375 (nine carat gold) and 9. The bar is hallmarked for Birmingham nine-carat gold and stamped with the initials CDB, as are both Albert clips. In very good antique condition, with surface wear consistent with normal usage over time. Chain length: 40cm (15 and three quarter inches) not including the dangle section. Chain width: 6mm. T-bar length: 3.4cm. Weight: 29.7g.
