Description

An excellent quality Victorian Sterling Silver dressing table mirror. The large silver frame is decorated in a beautiful swirling repoussé design with figures in the bottom corners and a cartouche in the top centre. The easel back is covered in blue velvet and the mirror has a good quality bevelled glass plate. It is clearly hallmarked for William Comyns, London, 1899. It is also marked "Bechtler Allahabad", top quality retailers of the time. It is in excellent condition for its age and looks nearly new. There are no damages and the easel back is in good solid order. There is no rubbing or wear and the repoussé is crisp and clear. The silver has been gently cleaned and polished and the mirror is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £10, rest of the world £30.
